

Partners & Sponsors

This event is presented by the Snoqualmie Valley Preservation Alliance, with significant support, sponsorship, and collaboration from key partners: Carnation Farms, SnoValley Tilth, King Conservation District, WSDA Regional Markets Program & WA Meat Up, King County DNRP Agriculture, Forestry, & Incentives Unit and Sustainable Communities Funders.

SVPA

The Snoqualmie Valley Preservation Alliance (SVPA) is a community-based 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization dedicated to protecting and enhancing the lives, livelihoods, lands, and waters of the beautiful Snoqualmie River Valley by working collaboratively to find balanced, long-term solutions to land use planning, agricultural viability, watershed management, ecosystem health, and flood risk mitigation. Learn more about us at www.svpa.us.

Carnation Farms

Carnation Farms is a community-based hub for regenerative food and agriculture that educates and empowers the work of culinary, food, and farming professionals. We aspire to help create a thriving regional food system connecting farmers and culinary professionals around shared values of regenerative food, health and equity. Learn more at www.carnationfarms.org.

King Conservation District

King Conservation District is a nonregulatory, special purpose district, funded by you, with a mission to promote the sustainable use of natural resources through voluntary stewardship in King County. We provide technical assistance to private residents in forest management, farm conservation planning, wildfire preparedness, and streamside and shoreline enhancement. We also work with cities and other organizations to support community gardens, urban forest canopy, and local food systems. You don't have to go it alone, your local conservation district can help. Learn more at www.kingcd.org.